

Privilege Walk Questions

1. If one or both of your parents has a college degree, take one step forward.
2. If one of your parents works two jobs, take one step back.
3. If your family has two or more cars, take one step forward.
4. If you are right-handed, take one step forward.
5. If you have a disability, take one step back.
6. If you are worried about going out in your neighborhood at night, take one step back.
7. If your family hires someone to clean the house, take care of the lawn, or something similar, take one step forward.
8. If you studied the contributions of your culture to American history, take one step forward.
9. If you have walked into a store and felt like the owner was watching you because of the color of your skin or the way you were dressed, take one step back.
10. If you are male, take one step forward.
11. If you see positive role models of your race most times when you turn on the TV, take one step forward.
12. If you don't hesitate to call the police when you have a problem, take one step forward.
13. If your family has a computer, take one step forward.
14. If one of your parents has a foreign accent, take one step back.
15. If you ever missed a meal because there was not food in your home, take one step back.
16. If your family does not worry about the cost before going to the doctor or the dentist, take one step forward.
17. If you ever changed your appearance to fit in, take one step back.
18. If both of your parents were born in the US take one step forward.
19. If your family assumes you will go to college, take one step forward.
20. If your parents completed high school, take one step forward
21. If your parents have ever said you that you can be anything you want to be, take one step forward.
22. If your family has health insurance take one step forward.
23. If your parents are divorced, take one step back.
24. If you can afford to go to a fast food restaurant whenever you want to, take one step forward.
25. If there was ever drug or alcohol abuse in your household, take one step back.
26. If you come from a single-parent household, take one step back.
27. If you belong to a race, ethnicity, or religion which is ridiculed or the subject of jokes, take one step back.
28. If you go on a family vacation every year, take one step forward.
29. If you have more than thirty books in your household, take one step forward.