

How to Play Silly Sentence Game

Materials

- None

Instructions

1. Have everyone arrange themselves in a circle.
2. Choose one person to go first.
3. The first person says a word to start a sentence. Something like “The”, or “A”, or “My” .
4. The next person adds a single word like “dog” or “alien” or something else.
5. The next person adds another word and so on until you have a sentence.

Notes

- The words added must make sense from a grammatical standpoint. They don't have to make a lot of sense for the message though.
- The players will figure out pretty quickly that it is fun to throw in a word that takes the sentence in a new direction!
