

WHEN LIFE FEELS HARD

BASED ON PSALM 66

God, I want to thank You for all You have done. Sometimes I forget, but You are always there. You made the world. You made me. Help me to remember that You are in control.

There are days when everything feels heavy. School is stressful. Friends are confusing. I feel like I'm walking through fire. But I trust that You will bring me through.

Thank You for hearing my prayers. Even when I don't have the right words, Even when I say nothing at all, You still listen. You still care.

I want to praise You, not just with my words, But with how I live each day. Help me to be kind. Help me to forgive. Help me to share Your love with others.

God, I will keep praying and thanking You. In the good days and the hard ones too. You have helped me before. I know You will help me again.

WHEN LIFE FEELS HARD

BASED ON PSALM 66

God, I want to thank You for all You have done. Sometimes I forget, but You are always there. You made the world. You made me. Help me to remember that You are in control.

There are days when everything feels heavy. School is stressful. Friends are confusing. I feel like I'm walking through fire. But I trust that You will bring me through.

Thank You for hearing my prayers. Even when I don't have the right words, Even when I say nothing at all, You still listen. You still care.

I want to praise You, not just with my words, But with how I live each day. Help me to be kind. Help me to forgive. Help me to share Your love with others.

God, I will keep praying and thanking You. In the good days and the hard ones too. You have helped me before. I know You will help me again.

WHEN LIFE FEELS HARD

BASED ON PSALM 66

God, I want to thank You for all You have done. Sometimes I forget, but You are always there. You made the world. You made me. Help me to remember that You are in control.

There are days when everything feels heavy. School is stressful. Friends are confusing. I feel like I'm walking through fire. But I trust that You will bring me through.

Thank You for hearing my prayers. Even when I don't have the right words, Even when I say nothing at all, You still listen. You still care.

I want to praise You, not just with my words, But with how I live each day. Help me to be kind. Help me to forgive. Help me to share Your love with others.

God, I will keep praying and thanking You. In the good days and the hard ones too. You have helped me before. I know You will help me again.